

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RYAN HOMER DITTMER,

Defendant.

4:16CR3079

ORDER

The defendant was previously released on conditions, but admitted to violating the terms of that release by leaving his treatment facility without permission. Based on the evidence presented, the court finds the defendant cannot be trusted to comply with the conditions of pretrial supervision and, as such, defendant's release would pose a risk flight and a risk of harm to the community.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
